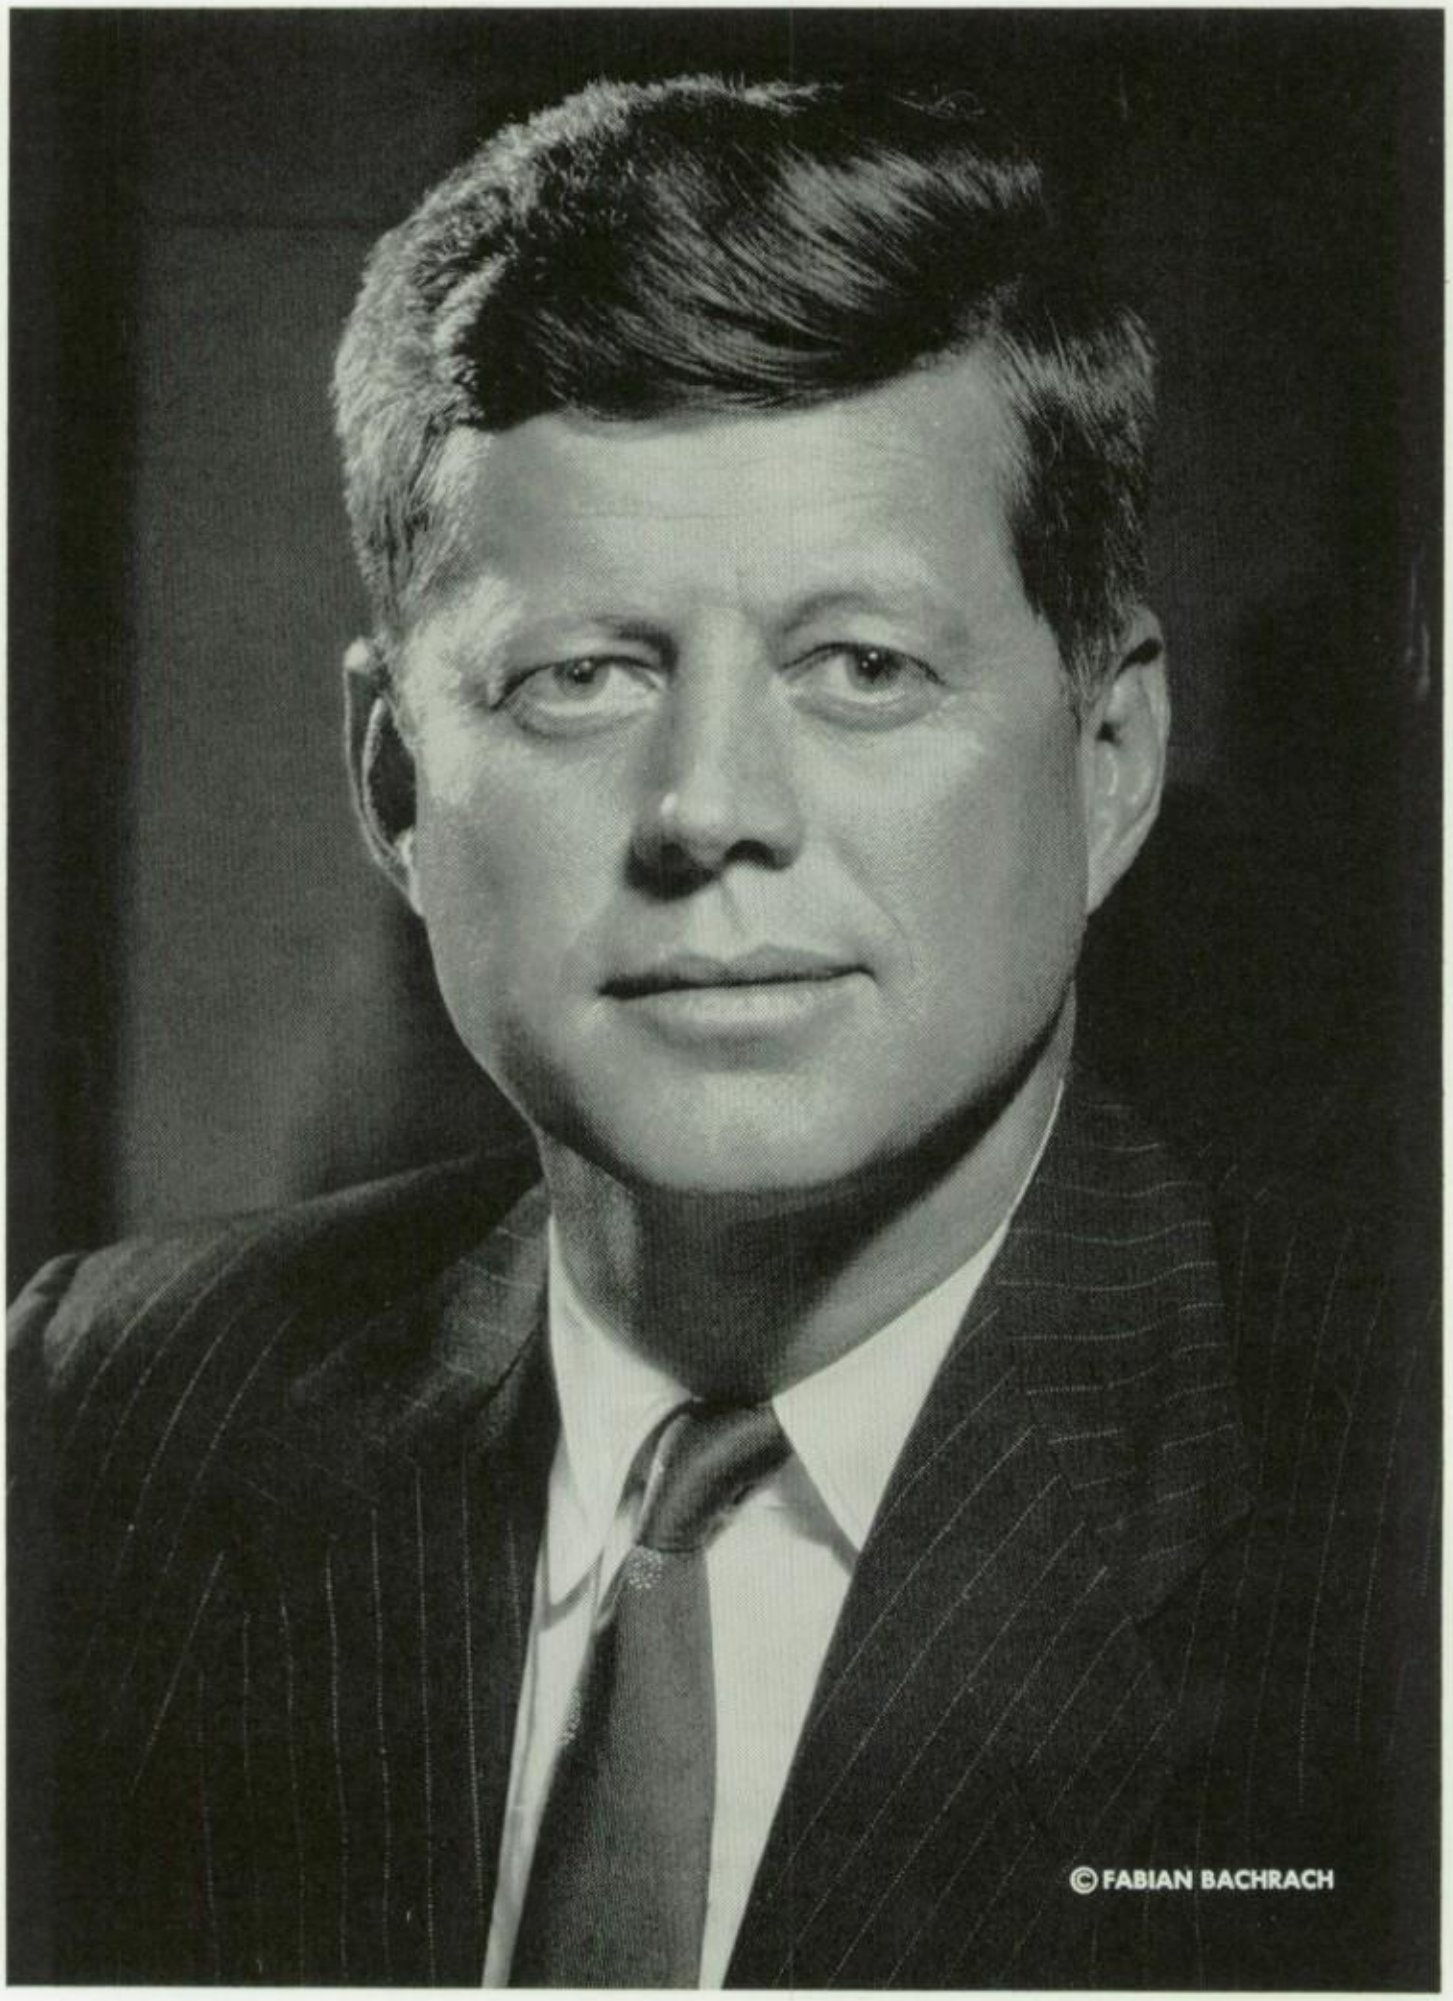
In Memoriam



JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

Dedication

We, the class of 1964, are proud to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. John MacRoy. Though at times we have not fully realized the worth of hard work, as we reach graduation, we are now truly aware of the merits of industry. Your principles and advanced methods of teaching have prepared us more than adequately for the years ahead. Our thanks go to you, Mr. MacRoy, for giving us an example on which to pattern our lives.

To Our Retiring Teachers

MRS. EVADEAN HANDY

We, the class of '64,
In honor dedicate
Our memory forevermore
To one we hold so great.

Her patience and solicitude
Were always present near.
Her ability in magnitude
Made math a subject clear.

We can't forget the work she did
Through methods wise and clever;
And to her now we humbly bid,
"Good-bye, good luck, forever."

(Elizabeth Nichols)

MRS. DOROTHY BOSLET

We, the class of '64, can well remember how unobservant we have often been of the strict library rules and of the frustration we must have aroused. With the following verse, we now express our true appreciation of the fine work you have accomplished here at Fort Plain. May health and happiness always be yours.

Recalling how we misbehaved
And were unquiet too,
We'd like to show our real respect
And wish the best to you.

(Elizabeth Nichols)

Appreciation to Our Advisors

We, the class of 1964, wish to extend our gratitude to our advisors, Mrs. Marian Shults, Mr. Thomas Hall, Mr. Robert Waffle. Though we have been, at times, a difficult class with which to work, you have stood by us and successfully helped us achieve our goals. We truly appreciate your understanding efforts.

Class History

"Grandchildren, I'd like to tell you about my days in the old Fort Plain High School. Now that you children use these new-fangled machines for education, you just don't appreciate what it was like to go to a real high school. In those days we had classes - and we were the great class of 1964. We started our career together in the seventh grade, a new experience for us all. Aside from being introduced into a new scholastic life, we were forced to do our share in bettering the financial aspects of our school. We sold basketball pencils (George, basketball is a game played by five boys and six cheerleaders). Anyway, we managed to get a good start under the leadership of Liz Nichols, president; Dickie Jacksland, vice-president; and Ginny D'Arcangelis, secretary-treasurer.

Eighth grade was a tasty but comfortable year, as we had a food sale in Conover's Furniture Store. Having now adjusted, we settled down with Sandy Miller, president; Ginny D'Arcangelis, vice-president, and Dickie Jacksland, secretary-treasurer. Then, we moved to ninth grade. We worked under the able leadership of David B. Lane, president; Richie Trembley, vice-president; and Kathy Snyder, secretary-treasurer. Care of the coat check was our money-making enterprise for the year. That year we had our first social event of our high school years. Our dance "April Showers" was a rousing success and we made twenty-six whole dollars. The next year we were allowed to participate in all high school activities and we joined everything existing. Our officers were Lorraine Antalek, president (Yes, Septimus, she's the lady who won the Nobel Prize in the field of higher mathematics), David B. Lane, vice-president, and Betty Chamberlain, secretary-treasurer. We had a real devil of a dance with a twist theme.

In eleventh grade leading our class onward were Dickie Jacksland, president; Jimmy Smith, vice-president; Laura B. Wolaniuk, secretary, and Ginny D'Arcangelis, treasurer. This was our big year as we received our class rings. We were proud to be the first class to initiate action for and to receive standard school rings. This was also the year of our class dance "Winter Wonderland" and more important our prom "Stairway to the Stars" with Micki Pugliese, chairman. Carol Fisher (that's right, Arabel, our present ambassador to Pluto) was chosen to be our exchange student. Unfortunately, she could not be placed.

Then, with mixed emotions, we became seniors. At the helm was Admiral Jacksland, ably assisted by Micki Pugliese, vice-president, Cindy Kahn, secretary, and Ginny D'Arcangelis, treasurer. We were honored to have five members of the class receive letters of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Foundation. They were: Fred (the Lip) Lieber, Gail Hyde, Liz Nichols, Carol Fisher, and Laura B. Wolaniuk. Our class dance "Turkey Trot" was held in late December. That year we received our senior pictures and welcomed our ambassador from Switzerland, Kathy Marti. In February the Regents Scholarship winners were announced. We were very proud of: Gail Hyde, Carol Fisher, Laura Wolaniuk, Fred Lieber, Sharon Glenn, Bobby Kirkpatrick, Liz Nichols, and also of Helen Gudlewski, who received a special New York State Scholarship provided for children of disabled members of the Armed Forces of the United States. We anxiously awaited the other big events of our senior year - the Senior Banquet, the Prom, and mostly graduation.

We left in this institution a part of our lives and a part of our hearts - a part we shall never forget.

(Laura Wolaniuk)
(Carol Fisher)

The 1963-64 Fort Plain Hilltoppers have had a very successful season to date, having completed seventeen games and having won fifteen of them, their only defeats coming from the hands of powerful Cobleskill and always dangerous Broadalbin. The Hilltoppers are presently leading the Tri-Valley League and with one game remaining are assured of at least a tie for the league championship.

This year's success is due mostly to great team balance with the accent being on the team instead of the individual. On any one night, the Hilltoppers may have any of their fine starters or reserves as their most potent weapon. Because of this, the Hilltoppers' offense is ticking off at the rate of seventy-three points per game, while holding their opponents to a mere fifty-seven points per game.

Again this year, Fort Plain will participate in the post season's playoffs better known as sectionals. They will be trying to better their runner-up spot of a year ago and will start their quest for the championship on March 6, versus either Greenville or Catskill. Let's wish our team luck in the tournament.

that's a gasser!

Help. I'm drowning!

If you don't, I'll hold my breath.

How far out may I go?

We go all out for parties.

Now, what do you think I'm digging?

You can always tell a Halo girl.

A boyscout is brave, courteous...

Play it my way or else!

I wouldn't lie to you.

Olympic champs of 1948.

Gee!

I don't get it.

Starlight, starbright...

Smile, you're on candid camera.

Ride 'em, Gail!

Leave it to Norm.

There must be an easier way!

Lassie, you're home.

I see the situation differently.

But, I didn't do it

Sono, Arrnato sol anto due giorni fa.

An early start is what she needed.

Go, Greg, Go!

Of course, it's good!

I said, "Drop those guns, cowboy!"

Ah, you're kidding.

Did you say, "Boys'll be there"
